

The Central Commission for the Navigation of the Rhine (CCNR) is an international organisation with lead responsibility for regulatory activity as regards the navigation of the Rhine (www.ccr-zkr.org).

In order to reinforce its team of translators during times of high activity, the Secretariat of the CCNR wishes to expand its list of freelance translators available and competent to work in its areas of activity for the following language combinations:

From German	into Dutch
From French	into Dutch
From Dutch	into French

The documents to be translated include technical, legal and economic texts (working documents, opinions, agendas, minutes of meetings, draft regulations, etc.) as well as more general texts (communications, web site articles, etc.).

An excellent command of the source and target languages is essential as are excellent drafting skills. Concrete examples of the documents produced are available on the website of the CCNR: www.ccr-zkr.org/13020000-en.html

Interested translators are invited to address their offer by e-mail to career@ccr-zkr.org, providing all relevant information including language combinations, fields of specialisation, experience, use of CAT tools, prices and rates.
